4th. (To Berthier.) Write to the Duke of Elchingen that the condition of his corps is alarming. Tell him to send out detachments of cavalry, commanded by staff officers, to bring the stragglers up; many of them are committing crimes, and will finish by getting picked up by the Cossacks.

7th. The Guard must march. But I shall not feel easy until the Guard and headquarters have secured twenty days' provisions, as they come last and must set an example of discipline.

8th. We lose so many horses in this country that with all the resources of France and Germany it will be very difficult ta keep up the present strength of our mounted troops.

10th. (To Berthier.) Send a brigade of gendarmes to Voronovo. They will arrest the looters of the 33d, who are devastating that country horribly.

14th. Deputies of the Polish Confederation, I have listened to your address with interest. The love of country is the highest virtue of civilized man. My position entails the harmonizing of many interests and the carrying out of many duties. Had I lived in the days of the first, the second, or the third partition of Poland, I would have armed my whole people to support you. I feel affection for your nation; during sixteen years your soldiers have fought by my side on the fields of Italy as on those of Spain.

If your efforts are united you may hope to compel your enemies to recognise your rights.

15th. The enemy have attacked Sebastiani's cavalry. The King of Naples is taking position at Ikazni
